Ph.D., FADS, FNAVS, FANSI, FANA (Animal Nutrition)
VICE-CHANCELLOR

Dear Student Friends,
Warm Greetings,

I am delighted to know that you are interested in pursuing post-graduate studies leading to the degree of Master of Veterinary Science with specialization in one of the disciplines from Veterinary / Animal Sciences. The Veterinary Science indeed is a highly noble and rewarding profession. The livestock and poultry sectors have witnessed a rapid growth in past few decades and are contributing significantly to the GDP of the country derived from agriculture. These sectors are expected to receive more attention in the 21st century occupying the centre stage along with other leading professional subjects.

The Veterinary and Animal Science sectors are the pillars contributing to the technology led growth in achieving the nutritional security of mankind. There are many private players taking up Veterinary and Animal Husbandry as an entrepreneurship today, particularly in areas of modern farming, biotechnology, genetic engineering, nanotechnology, vaccines, diagnostics, feed and value added animal products, thereby opening up new avenues for veterinary professionals. Companion animals (dogs, cats etc.) practice in cosmopolitan cities, establishment of dairy and poultry industries, milk and meat processing centres, establishment of livestock business and marketing etc. are gaining momentum. Even the demand for Veterinarians required in the fields of research, teaching and extension, in both, the developed and developing countries is on a rise. Besides this, the veterinarians also have opportunities for getting placements in the defence and paramilitary services and play a very important role in diagnosis, treatment and conservation of variety of wild animals.

Whatever area or career you choose, develop a passion for the profession in order to achieve success. I am sure that at the end of the academic career you will be all groomed to take up this profession to greater heights with your zeal and enthusiasm.

Wish you a very bright and successful career.

(Dr. Niteen V. Patil)
