Research across Livestock, Poultry and
Pet Animals in The Era of One Health

20-21 August 2026

Organized by

Department of Veterinary Pharmacology & Toxicology,
Nagpur Veterinary College, Maharashtra Animal &
Fishery Sciences University, Nagpur

and

Indian Society of Ethno Veterinary Herbal Research
Veterinary College and Research Institute, Orathanadu,
Thanjavur (TN)

The Venue

Located geographically at the precise center of India, Nagpur is known as “Zero Mile Centre” of India. Nagpur is also known as “Orange City” because it is a major trade center, cultivator, and exporter of high-quality mandarin oranges relished for its sweet and tangy taste, as well as also known as “Tiger Capital of India” as it provides gateway to six major Tigre Reserves of India. Blessed with the thick tropical dry deciduous and mixed deciduous forests, the Nagpur and adjoining areas like Melghat (Amravati), Gadchiroli, Gondia, Bhandara districts possess the treasure of medicinal plants in abundance. The Waigaon Turmeric is a geographically tagged (GI) premium spice from Wardha district, which is just an hour drive from Nagpur is renowned for its medicinal value due to exceptionally high curcumin content (over 6%), deep mustard-yellow color, and intense, pungent aroma. Apart from the Zero Mile marker of India and jungle safari, the Nagpur and surrounding areas have popular tourist attractions like Gorewada Zoo, Dikshabhumi, Ramtek Temple, Swaminarayan Temple, Sevagram etc.

The Nagpur Veterinary College and MAFSU

Nagpur Veterinary College (NVC) was established on 1st July, 1958 and it is a constituent college of Maharashtra Animal & Fishery Sciences University (MAFSU), Nagpur. As one of the oldest veterinary colleges of Central India, the NVC is well known for its quality teaching, research and extension programs. Established on 3rd December, 2000, the Maharashtra Animal and Fishery Sciences University (MAFSU) is considered as the biggest Veterinary and Fishery sciences university in India in terms of the number of constituent colleges. Presently, the university has eleven constituent colleges comprising six Veterinary, three Fishery and two Dairy Technology colleges. Additionally, the Wildlife Research & Training Centre at Gorewada was established in the year 2015 to cater the needs of wildlife health management and research. The university has five Cattle Breeding Farms across the state with the mandate to conserve local germplasm and also 3 KVK's at Nagpur, Sangli and Thane.

About ISEVHR

Indian Society of Ethno Veterinary Herbal Research (ISEVHR) is a registered pioneer body, functioning with the objective of promoting research and development of herbal products, seeking documentation and conservation of ethno veterinary practices and promoting dissemination and utilization of herbal knowledge in the field of Veterinary and Animal Sciences.
